

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear attempt to influence the presidential election. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, so aren't they obligated by law to serve the public interest?

A politically motivated broadcasting decision should not be allowed unless equal time is given to the other candidate.